

FOUR SEASONS OF CHINA: Highlights of Traditional Chinese Music

presented by the Confucius Institute at The University of Texas at Dallas

Saturday, November 7, 2015

7:30 p.m., Alexander Clark Center, UT Dallas

Admission: $5

(UTD students, faculty and staff get free admission by showing Comet Card)

A concert presented by Sino-Rhythm Orchestra of the Confucius Institute at UT Dallas. Comprising four chapters corresponding to the four seasons, the concert highlights the most distinctive features of traditional Chinese music. It offers an opportunity to experience different aspects of Chinese culture through the music from different regions of China.

Honorable
Sponsor:

ZTE Tomorrow never waits