GRADUATE

M.A. in Applied Linguistics
Engage language communities using our in-depth training in Applied Linguistics. Choose one of three concentrations: Bible Translation, Descriptive Linguistics, or Cross-Cultural Service.

M.A. in Language and Culture Studies
Gain essential tools for effective cross-cultural service among minority people groups with one of the following concentrations: Literacy, Islamic Worldviews, Scripture Engagement, or Sociolinguistics.

M.A. in World Arts
Spark creativity in communities around the world, facilitating local artists' responses to their communities' needs through arts such as music, drama, dance, stories, poetry, proverbs, and visual arts. Choose a concentration in Applied Arts, Arts and Islam, Arts and Scripture Engagement, or Linguistics.

M.A. in Abrahamic Studies
Explore worldviews, histories, beliefs, and practices of Jewish, Christian, and Muslim societies. Get equipped to serve within these communities with respect and understanding. Choose a concentration in Islamic Worldviews or Abrahamic Worldviews.

Certificate in Multicultural Teamwork
Build successful teams and learn to overcome cultural barriers that hinder teamwork in a multicultural setting.

Certificate in Islamic Studies
Understand Islamic history, cultures, worldviews, sacred texts, and religion and develop strategies to bridge differences with Muslim communities.
